

Top 10 Reasons to Select Wes Thomas Associates as YOUR Surveyor of Choice

---

4 Licensed Professional Land Surveyors on Staff
making it easy for us to collaborate, check each others work and share ideas

We field check our maps BEFORE we deliver them to our clients ... we want to be sure an accurate product is delivered

We know what confidentiality means and we don't release private survey data to others. That being said, we will help you find those "missing: public record documents whenever possible

We are problem solvers.
We work with you on solutions.

With 38 years of Surveying in the islands it means we have resources that other firms may not have

We research parcels and projects prior to providing a quote or advice

We provide personal service to you and your client, before, during and after the project

We can assist you with providing added value to your clients with advice on FEMA Elevation Certificates for insurance and/or construction, ALTA Certification Surveys for financing topographic surveys for future planning and construction .....and much, much more

We understand what the client's architect, engineer, contractor and attorney need.
These professionals often contact us for advice.
We know how to work as a member of the "team"

With most of our staff having been born and raised in Hawaii we understand the culture, the people and the history of the islands. We know and respect tradition and use that knowledge in our surveys. We've done surveys that recover original data from the late 1800's. We know our role as a land surveyor in the Hawaiian Islands.